

Mamas, Speak Truth to Housing!

Townhall prioritizing pregnant women and families in the midst of the housing crisis.

Bayview Hunters Point YMCA

Conference Center

Saturday, August 25th | 11:30-3pm

1601 Lane St. San Francisco, CA 94124

Lunch will be served and resource information will be available. Town Hall discussion on housing needs for pregnant women and families in San Francisco with community and elected leaders. Please arrive early to enjoy lunch and to join this important discussion on housing starting at noon.

Kid-Friendly Activities | Free Food | Community Resources | Music

Hosted By

This event is hosted by the UCSF California Preterm Birth Initiative's Benioff Community Innovators. The Innovators are a group of San Franciscan mothers of color who are working to ensure that all pregnant women and families with young children in San Francisco have adequate and affordable housing to ensure healthy birth outcomes.

For more information contact:

Shanell Williams

PTBi-CA Director of Community Engagement

415-375-1069

shanell.williams@ucsf.edu

California

Preterm Birth Initiative

UCSF

University of California
San Francisco

